W. T. VANKIRK,
C. B. WISSE,
C. C. KUEHLER,
W. W. CLARK,
J. W. JONES,
Committee.

Assembly Conventions.

THIRD DISTRICT.
The Third Assembly District Convention is held at Janesville, on Wednesday, September 8, at 10 o'clock a. m., to nominate delegates to the Assembly in said district. The delegates are as follows: Clinton, Fulton, Union, Milton, the Second and Third Wards of the city of Janesville two each; Bradford and La Prairie two each; Beloit three; Janesville four each.

W. T. VANKIRK,
C. B. WISSE,
C. C. KUEHLER,
W. W. CLARK,
J. W. JONES,
Committee.

Beliefs.

—Mr. Charles L. Dudley returned to Chicago yesterday.

—The hazy weather is just what the tobacco grower wants.

—A number of the attorneys are in Jefferson attending court.

—Business of all kinds is slower now than it has been for a long time.

—Seven Oaks has been connected by telephone to the central office in this city.

—Major George Randall, of Indian fighting fame, is in the city visiting relatives and friends.

—The Rev. W. F. Brown, of the Presbyterian church, has returned from his vacation journeyings.

—Mrs. D. W. Wall, who has been with her husband for the last ten days, in Illinois has returned home.

—Dr. D. Robinson will leave in the morning for Grand Haven Mich., on a visit to his uncle who is residing there.

—The mystery has made its appearance and many opinions baffle as now being served up in stews and on the half shell.

—Prof. Harry Arnold has returned from his trip to the Rockies much improved and will resume his music teaching.

—Mr. W. Fox, the livery man on Court street, is anxiously searching for a missing horse and buggy, which he hired to a stranger two days ago.

—The Janesville Matins went to Rockford and defeated the club there by a score of 11 to 1. Rockford played the best game they ever did.

—Mr. William Ringer returned from Louisville yesterday afternoon, where he went on business connected with the sale of the Big United States Show.

—The league ball games yesterday resulted as follows: Chicago 7, Troy 1; Providence 2, Cleveland 10; Buffalo 10, Worcester 1; Boston 10, Detroit 3.

—Mr. George Pritchard, a former resident of Janesville, and now of Madison, is the happy father of a three weeks old son, whom he thinks will some day be President.

—Mr. R. W. King, is shipping an excellent stock of goods to his new store at Clark, Dakota. The town is growing, and he expects to build up a large trade in that place.

—Mr. J. M. Bostwick, the genial and enterprising dry goods merchant, will leave for Boston, New York and other eastern points, to-morrow morning to get a new supply of goods for his increasing trade.

—The Rev. Lyman Whiting, of Charleston, Virginia, formerly of the Congregational Church of this city, was in town yesterday and met a large number of old friends at the Congregational prayer meeting last evening.

—Mr. J. W. Ivery, of Birmingham, Eng., who has been examining clays in this country with a view of establishing tile works, has been in the city on a visit to the Hon. Piny Norcross who met Mr. Ivery while in England two years ago.

—A very sad misfortune was visited upon Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown this morning. Their little boy, born two days ago, died, leaving only a remembrance of his angelic face to solace the grief stricken parents. Mr. Brown has not been here very long, but he and his wife have made a large circle of friends who deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

—During the approaching reunion of the army of the Cumberland, at Milwaukee, the Eighth Wisconsin, the old Eagle Regiment will hold a reunion of their own. Mr. A. G. Weisner, of Milwaukee, writes to Col. Britton to inform all the old veteran members of the regiment of the fact, and to ask them to report at the office of Mr. Weisner, 107 Wisconsin street, on the afternoon of Sept. 10.

—Mr. Fred Sonenborn, the popular clothier, is making a magnificent display of suitings and general clothing just received. The overcoat patterns particularly, are very fine and tasty. We never aspired for wealth with more earnestness than this morning, when glancing over the tempting array of clothes, and feeling the texture of the fine goods. He not only has the material, but keeps first class tailors and cutters, to make it into noble suits.

—The Galbraith Brothers, the well known owners of Clydesdale horses, have brought Rock County into prominence by taking seven premiums at the Minnesota State Fair, with their stock.

—The following horses belonging to them were awarded prizes:

For aged horses—"Prince George of Wales," first premium. Three year olds—first "Glenfruin," second "Earl of Monteth," third "Glenrosa." Four year old class—first "Glenfalloch," second "Masie."

—The narrow prejudice—which a few people hold against a patent medicine, because its formula isn't written in Latin, which they can't read, is narrow-minded, and not in keeping with the progress of the age. Zornia will cure every case of Dyspepsia and Biliousness if the directions are followed. Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

—The weather.

Reported by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

The thermometer at 7 a. m. to-day registered 62 degrees above zero, and at 1 p. m. 70 degrees above.

For the corresponding hours last year the figures were 62 and 99 degrees above.

The signal service indications for to-day were:

For the upper lake region—Fair weather, north to east winds, higher barometer, stationary or lower temperature.

—If any lady or gentlemen is earnestly in favor of the purchase by the city of the Young Men's Association library, let him or her circulate a petition, asking the city council to do something in the premises. The council will meet next Monday night, and by that time, several hundred signatures could be obtained, as it is not probable any sensible person will refuse to sign it. Who will inaugurate the good work?

—An Old Friend.

He was afflicted with a lame back and general debility; he was recommended to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which cured him at once. This famous specific is a positive remedy for bodily pain. Sold by Palmer & Stevens and Sauer & Co.

The Opera House.

The audience at Myers' Opera house last night was small but enthusiastic. The play "A Square Man," written by Mr. Edward J. Swartz, a Philadelphia Journalist, is a portrayal of the primitive civilization noticeable in mining camps, and is rather good. It was given poorly here last night, however, the entire company, except Mr. Maginley and Miss Libbie Nixon going through their roles mechanically, without infusing any more vigor into the action and language, than is usual at a rehearsal. This apparent carelessness was attributed by Mr. Maginley to the small orchestra, who he said "broke us up." As Jack Kenyon, "A Square Man," Mr. Ben Maginley was excellent, as he always is in his roles, and though the support visibly lacked fervor, it was far, ordinary perhaps would better describe it.

The character assumed by Mr. Maginley is very similar to that of Joe Saunders in "My Partner," and is one which will always enlist the sympathy of the audience, as honesty and nobility of character, however uncouthly clothed, is invariably applauded. Miss Libbie Nixon's role, Blossom the Angel of Boomer Run is very much like that of Miss Liss. She plays it well but acts a little too much like a virago, showing her words and speaking through clenched teeth as if afraid to catch cold in a hollow molar. If she would only leave out some of the ternagent, Miss Nixon would be much better. The situations in the play are good and strong, and when produced with all the accessories "A Square Man" must be a fine play, but as we saw it just as it was played to us, we are not inclined to dream of its possibilities, and conjecture the magnificence of the presentation of which it is susceptible.

The colored whistler was rapturously applauded for his whistling of "Killarney" the "Mocking Bird" and another selection. His lower notes are like like, but the higher ones which he seldom essays are not as good.

—Mrs. Ira Mulholland, Albany, N. Y., writes: "For several years I have suffered from the recurring bilious headaches, dyspepsia and complaints peculiar to a man. Since using your Bismark Blood Purifiers I am entirely relieved." Price $1.00.

The marriage of Mr. Fred A. Vankirk and Miss M. Ella Case, of Farmington, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, in Farmington, last Wednesday evening, the Rev. Mr. Woodman officiating. There were a number of relatives and friends present, extending congratulations to the happy young couple, whose horizon of life is illumined with the brightest hopes and prospects.

Mr. Vankirk has a host of friends here who are pleased at his good fortune in securing so lovely and estimable a bride. Mrs. John Vankirk, mother of the groom, Miss Mary Vankirk, his sister, Mr. C. N. Vankirk, his brother, Miss Fanny Vankirk, his niece, and Mr. Edward F. Kelly were present from Janesville.

The presents were numerous and costly.

—Mrs. A. N. Frank, 177 West Tupper Street, Buffalo, N. Y., says she has used Thomas' Eucalypti Oil, for severe tooth-ache and neuralgia, and considers it the best thing she knows for relieving pain.
